

February 2006 Barrington Software Newsletter

Something New For Caterers

Preview BSI Cater, to be released next month.

- Event management including Sub-Events, Recurring Events.
- Calendar display, transfer to Outlook/Pocket Outlook
- Customers, Customer Billing, Contract Creation
- Integration with Room Viewer
- Integration With CookenPro for Inventory

Something New For QuickBooks Users

New releases of BSI Accounting Bridge and POS Store & Forward with Package Pricing

- Summary of Vendor Payable by Accounting Category
- Ability to send counts for Locations within a Cost Center
- Creation of Parent References for Items, chart of accounts based on sub-department, department or sub-department within department
- Summary of Vendor Payable by Accounting Category
- Ability to maintain sell item cost and price in POS Store & Forward – When transferred to QuickBooks – you get sales revenue and Cost of Goods Sold (COGS)
- Ability to filter sales batches by Cost Center and Time Period to allow easier transfer of sales to QuickBooks for multiple stores.
- New User Friendly layout in POS Store & Forward

Did You Know?

CookenPro will give you the entire Inventory Needed with shelf location for a Menu Plan.

You are receiving this newsletter either because you are a customer, you have requested information, or you have downloaded software and given us your e-mail address. If for any reason, at any time you no longer wish to receive a newsletter from us, just enter “remove” anyplace in a reply to our e-mail.